

The flow associated to weakly differentiable vector fields: recent results and open problems

Luigi Ambrosio
SNS, Pisa

We describe some recent progress and open problems on the characteristic ODE associated to vector fields with a low regularity. After the description of some applications, we describe some recent work on the regularity of the flow map with respect to the spatial variables, and some open problems.